FOUR VACANCIES FILLED IN P. O. DEPARTMENT

Alfred B. Foster, Leighton V. B. Marschalk, Michael K. Campbell and John K. Pickett Promoted.

Appointments to Offices Made Neces sary by Becent Changes, It Is Announced.

L. V. B. MARSCHALK.

Postmaster General Burleson today announced the filling of four important vacancies in the Post Office Department by the promotion of officials and clerks lower grade. Alfred B. Foster of California was promoted from chief clerk to the fourth assistant postmaster general at $2,500 per annum to be superintendent of the division of equipment at $2.750 per annum; Leighton V B. Marschalk of Kentucky, from chief clerk of the division of rural mails at $2,000 to be superintendent of the division of post office supplies at $2,750; Michael K. Campbell of Illinois, from clerk of class four at $1,800 to be chief clerk of the division of equipment at $2,000, and John K. Pickett of Georgia. from chief clerk, division of equipment, at $2,000 to be chief clerk to the fourth assistant postmaster general at $2,500 assistant postmaster general at $2,500 per annum. Vacancies in the offices filled by the appointment of Messrs. Foster and Marschalk were created by the recent appointment of William I. Denning as chief clerk of the department. While Mr. Denning held the office of superintendent of the division of supplies the office of superintendent of the division of equipment was not filled. Mr. Pickett takes Mr. Foster's former place and Mr. Campbell succeeds Mr. Pickett.

First Job That of Page.

In 1899 Mr. Marschalk was appointed a page, at $30 a month, in the office of the fourth assistant postmaster general. He was then sixteen years old. A year later he was promoted to messenger in the division of post office inspectors at almost double his former salary. He rose quickly through various grades until 1913, when he was made a post office inspector. In this position he obtained postal experience in various investigations. Ill health forced his retirement from the post of fice inspection service for a brief period in 1914.

After he regained his health he reentered the service as a clerk in the office of the Revince of the Re a page, at $30 a month, in the office of

By competitive civil service examination Mr. Foster entered the postal service from California. He has served in several divisions of the Post Office Department, and is said to be especially familiar with the work of the equipment division. He is forty-seven years old, and was born in Missouri. He went to California when sixteen, and was working as a clerk in the Oakland post office when he took the examination for appointment to a permanent position in Washington.

general and consolidated with the rural delivery service.

July 1, 1913, he was placed in charge of the equipment branch of the supply division, and a year afterward was promoted to the chief clerkship of the division of equipment. During the past two years Postmaster General Burleson has utilized Mr. Pickett's knowledge of postal conditions in the endeavor to promote economy and efficiency in the service, having assigned him to a number of important cases of special nature, involving the reconstruction of methods in large offices and improvements in postal equipment. Mr. Pickett was born at Preston, Webster county, Ga., August 10, 1871. His home is at Dawson, Ga.

Tumulty May Be a Judge.

The committee also invited Secretary Tumulty to officiate as one of the judges and he has promised that he would be on hand if engagements do not call him out of the city on that day. Mr. Tumulty was one of the spectators of the Fourth of July celebration at Brightwood and is a big booster for municipal entertainments of this character, as he believes that they are strong factors in the promotion of civic spirit.

Judging from the entries that are coming in, the show, which is to be entirely free to the public, will provide more exciting competition in the races and other events than did the Independence day fete.

women appointed to positions in the Spinner, United States treasurer, died yesterday at 1437 Irving street northwest, where she had resided for several tyears. Miss Graves was in her eighty—leighth year, and had been ill for about three weeks. Death was due to general debility.

Miss Amelia B. Graves, sister of Miss Graves, came to Washington some weeks ago from the family home at Boonville, N. Y., and nursed her during her illness. She left at 1 o'clock this afternoon for Boonville with the body, where the interment will take place wednesday.

Beven years ago Miss Emma Graves observed the fftieth anniversary of her appointment in the Treasury Department, and five years later she again celebrated, large numbers of her friends calling to felicitate her on each anniversary.

The redemption bureau of the Treasury Department has been the scene of all of Miss Graves' labors since she entered the government service over half a century ago. During that period of time she had been counting worn currency sent into the Treasury Department for redemption.

Further information confirms previous reports that the violent counter attacks delivered during the past few days against the British and French fronts in front of Loos and to the north of this point have resulted only in a grave and costly check. The principal assault was delivered by an effective force of between three and four divisions, which was completely repulsed and dispersed. The number of dead left by the enemy on the ground in front of the lines of the allies is estimated at a total of between 7,000 and 8,000 men. NEW YORK, October 11,-George F. Epidemic Not Feared.

Although Bellevue Hospital in New now contains the third case of "anthrax," the sheep and cattle disease of South America, brought to the notice of Manhattan physicians within the past two weeks, any fear of an epidemic which is indicated by advices from that city is needless, according to Surgeon General Rupert Blue, head of the public health service in this city. Nor is anthrax a very rare disease, according to the same authority, although it has been stated to be one of the most rare and subtle of illnesses.

"Cases of anthrax are not so un." The enemy is displaying great activity in constructing defensive works and establishing his communications. His exertions, however, are being seriously impeded by our artillery and by bold raids by small detachments to be one of the most rare and subtle of illnesses.

"Cases of anthrax are not so uncommon as might be supposed," said Gen. Blue this morning, "although not usual, owing to the very source of the trouble. It is primarily an animal disease, the virus being imported into the human system by an insect. I understand that the bureau of animal industry of the Department of Agriculture has prepared a serum treatment for the trouble which has proved successful. The public health service has not been officially advised of any recent cases of this malady in New York, nor does it fear an epidemic." by bold raids by small detachments of our troops.

Along the Isonzo during the day of the 9th and the following night, after intense artillery preparation and volleys of hand grenades, a strong enemy force attempted attacks against our positions on the right of Slatenik, in the Plezzo basin; on Mrzlivrh, in the Monte Nero zone; at Dolje, in the Tolmino section, and at Plava and at Zagora, on the lower Isonzo. The enemy everywhere was repulsed with heavy losses, even leaving prisoners in our hands. PETROGRAD, October 10, via London

During one attack on this village we took 250 prisoners and seven machine guns. In attacks near Pochiline the Germans at first were successful, but toward evening the development of their offensive was checked east of the village. TO TAKE PART IN COURT Recovering, However, From Effects of Slight Paralysis Suffered at White Sulphur Springs.

Associate Justice Joseph R. Lamar et the Supreme Court, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis while at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., a month ago, has not sufficiently recovered his health to attend the sessions of the court, though at his home here today it was reported that his condition is improving. Only his left arm and his left leg are affected, it is said. The justice had been suffering from high blood pressure, which centralized in his left arm and leg, causing painful inflam-mation. He has responded to treatment well, though he is still confined to his bed. He returned to Washington about a week ago.

In Need of Complete Best.

Complete rest has been ordered for Justice Lamar by his physicians, and it probably will be several weeks be-fore he will be able to take up his duties again.

President Wilson has written a letter of sympathy to Justice Lamar, and Mrs. Lamar has replied that her husband's condition recently has improved. Because of his iliness Justice Lamar was unable to join his colleagues today in their call upon the President. The justice will be fifty-eight years old Thursday. He was appointed to the Supreme Court by President Taft in December, 1910.

EXCISE BOARD BEGINS HEARINGS ON LICENSES

cases were made by A. E. Shoemaker, attorney for the Anti-Saloon League, and in only one instance was an applicant represented by an attorney. The application which passed unchallenged was that of Patrick F. O'Connor, who has applied for permission to operate a saloon at 617 D street northwest. Many Witnesses Heard.

The applicant who appeared with an attorney was Terence Fegan, who wants to operate a saloon at 830 4th street northwest. This case occupied considerably more than an hour, many witnesses being introduced by Attorney Shoemaker in his effort to show that disorders of an aggravated character had occurred in the section in which this saloon is located. Practically all the protestants were property owners. Mr. Fegan was represented by Attorney M. P. Sullivan.

Attorney Shoemaker registered protest against the granting of a license to Joseph Carroll at 234 3d street southwest on the ground that this is a residential district.
